“The Eucharist,
A Way to Pray, A Way to Live.”
Monday 17th & 24th OCTOBER 8pm
The Parish Centre, Frankfield

World Homeless Day – 10th October 2016:

Bantry Parish Assembly is organising a clothes collection for Simon. Items needed – warm socks, undergarments for men & women, sleeping bags & toiletries. Collection Points at doors in Bantry, Kealkil & Coomhola Churches before Masses this weekend.

Please support this worthy cause.

Time Apart

*Lord, in my busy days of noise and action,
Remind me of my need for time alone
And for peace and quiet and silence within.
Be with me now, Lord,
As I pause for a few moments in quietness*

The Catenian Association, or The Catenians, is an international brotherhood of Catholic laymen who meet socially, at least once a month, in local branches, known as Circles. Founded in 1908 in Manchester, there are over 10,000 members in Australia, Great Britain, Ireland, Malta, Africa, India and Bangladesh. The Catenians are non political and are from all sections of professional and business life.

The Cork Circle meets on the first Thursday of each month (except August) in the Rochestown Park Hotel.

For further information see www.thecatenians.com and contact Ger Lowney on 086 3736691

Focus Ireland; There are over 6,000 people homeless in Ireland today and 1 in 4 now experiencing homelessness is a child. Focus Ireland are looking for volunteers to help with their annual bucket collection on Saturday the 5th of November in Cork city, to help raise vital funds to provide services for those experiencing homelessness. If you can help, please contact Margaret on 086 6042854 or colemanm@focusireland.ie

The Bantry Saints: Cainir, Gobán, Mochomóg

Why did Bantry have a St. Goban's College, a St Canera's Place, and even a pub named the Kilgoban? Why does our parish bear the ancient name of Kilmocomoge? Find out when Tomás O'Sullivan, PhD, presents new research into the early Christian saints associated with Bantry: Cainir, today hailed as a feminist icon; the Gobáns galore, and the shadowy saint Mochomóg.

When: Monday 10th October at 8.00pm

Where: Christian Fellowship Church, Tower Street, Bantry. Everyone will be very welcome
